

Walteria News Notes

By MOLLIE L. DOWD
Persons interested in taking First Aid, sponsored by the Red Cross, please contact Mrs. Dowd at her home, 2423 1/2 Los Codona avenue, as soon as possible. These classes will be held once a week, the place to be announced as soon as enough people have been enrolled to warrant an instructor.

The JFF Club met Tuesday, September 19, at the Walteria Recreation Hall.
A decorated cake was served in honor of Mrs. Paul Lassen, who had a birthday during the month. Attending were Mesdames Paul Lassen, Paul Sloncker, John Minor, Eva Kelly, Della Armstrong, Lorine Harline, Effie Palmer, Cramer, and Haun.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Lee and family, who have been staying with Ronnie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee, of Hawthorne boulevard, have moved to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Laura Wray of Neece avenue spent several days last week as the guest of Mrs. Jane McKay, at the Yermo Marine Base. She bought business property while there, it was learned.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bahn of Bell were Sunday guests of Mrs. Lorine Harline and family of Los Codona avenue.

Mrs. Earl Kimball of 242nd street, and Mrs. Myrtle Baker, Adolph street, were luncheon guests of Mrs. Jennie Rodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harrison of Los Codona avenue spent Saturday, September 23, at the Alhambra home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Batezell. Mr. Batezell is the son of Mrs. Harrison.

Local nimrod, Paul Hughes, 244th street, returned last weekend from a very pleasant trip in the Sierras.

Word has been received by Mrs. Ivan Kettering, Neece avenue, of the arrival in the home of Dick and Maxine Bergeron, Myrtle Point, Ore., of Tanya Marie, on September 7. Dick was the first Walteria boy to enter the service at the outbreak of hostilities in World War II. He is again in the Coast Guard.

The Fidelis Club met Wednesday, September 20, at the Ward street home of Mrs. Clyde Getchel. Members enjoyed a pot-luck luncheon. Present were Mesdames Harline, Flint, Crowe, Sage, Corze, Sloncker, and the hostess, Mrs. Getchel, all of Walteria; and Mrs. Hamilton of Lomita. Several members were unable to attend because of illness.

Girl Scouts In Busy Schedule

Members of Girl Scout Troop 610, whose leader is Mrs. Rose Jones, report their late summer activities, which were climaxed with a camp fire investiture at Camp Archie Shields at Portuguese Bend. Preparations are being made for their participation in the three-day Nativity Church bazaar, October 6, 7, and 8 when they will sponsor a booth. They are also looking forward to later this month when a Court of Awards has been scheduled.

Speaker on Chest X-Ray

In conjunction with the Chest X-ray Campaign, being sponsored by the Shoestring Association and the Halldale PTA, Robert Elkin of the Tuberculosis and Health Association was guest speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Shoestring Association.

Elkin discussed the many important reasons why everyone over the age of 15 should participate in the X-ray campaign.
